

Holly S. Battersby

Holly S. Battersby is an associate with the firm, primarily practicing in the areas of municipal law and insurance defense, including defending police officers and other law enforcement officials in a variety of matters. Ms. Battersby additionally prosecutes zoning ordinance violations and violations of the Uniform Traffic Code for various municipal clients. Ms. Battersby is graduate of Michigan State University College of Law where she was active in the Trial Practice Institute, appointed to the Moot Court Executive Board and acted as the Moot Court Appellate Class Director. While in law school, she also received numerous awards including Best Brief-Writer and Best Oral Argument in local and national competitions as well as the American Jurisprudence Award for Research, Writing and Advocacy. Ms. Battersby also gained valuable prior litigation and courtroom experience while working at the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office, Washtenaw County Public Defender's Office, and two personal injury law firms.

Contact Information:

Farmington Hills Office
Phone: (248) 489-4100
Fax: (248) 489-1726
Email: hbattersby@jrsjlaw.com

Practice Areas

- Municipal Law
- Constitutional Law/Civil Rights
- Prosecution/Ordinance Enforcement
- Insurance Defense

Education

- University of Michigan, B.A. in Economics and Spanish, 2004
- Michigan State University College of Law, J.D., cum laude, 2008

Professional Activities/Memberships

- University of Michigan, B.A. in Economics and Spanish, 2004
- Michigan State University College of Law, J.D., cum laude, 2008

Awards

- 2012-2017 - Designated Super Lawyer Rising Star by Thomson Reuters in the area of municipal law

Publications/Presentations

- Presenter at the 2015 Michigan Local Government Management Association Winter Institute on "The Impact of Video Evidence on Police Litigation".
- Presenter at the MMRMA Annual Joint Committees Meeting on the topic "The Good, the Bad and the Ugly of Litigation," for the years 2011, 2012 and 2014.